

Water Cycle — Rainy Day Exploring

Put on your rain boots and get ready for rainy day exploring from your computer! Explore the water cycle and learn about the journey a raindrop takes. Discover what pollution is and how rain can impact the environment. Sing, dance, and color while you learn what is good and bad for the earth.

Grade: Pre-K, Kindergarten (with adult supervision)

Standards Supported

Connecticut Early Learning and Development Standards:

S.60.2 Engage in collaborative investigations to describe phenomena or to explore cause and effect relationships

S.48.10 Observe, record, and note patterns regarding weather and the effects on the immediate environment (e.g., Rain over a period of days causes flooding. Sunny days cause the flower bed to dry out.